

Policy, Planning and Management Course (PPMC)

Policy, Planning and Management Course (PPMC) is designed for the Additional Secretaries to the government with the objectives of impart intellectual inputs to widen the vision of the participants, enable them to contribute more to pro-people policy formulation and implementation. The aim of the course is also to improve the efficiency level of the participants to critically look into sectoral policies and other important aspects on pro-poor development issues through leadership role. The course curriculum has been designed in coordination with the objective of the course. The duration of this course is 12 days. About 15-20 participants can attend at each course. The Course is fully residential.

Objectives of PPMC

The main objective of this training course is to improve leadership quality so that the top civil servants attain the capability of taking steering role to translate the development agenda of the government into reality. The specific objectives of the course are to -

- impart intellectual inputs to widen the vision of the participants;
- enable the participants to contribute more to pro-people policy formulation and implementation and
- improve efficiency level of the participants to critically look into sectoral policies and other important aspects on pro-poor development issues through leadership role.